

HireReach Academy Readiness Assessment

Section One: Organization Information

Page description:

Thank you for your interest in the HireReach Academy.

The HireReach Academy application includes several sections:

- Section One: Organization Information - Questions in this section are designed to gather basic information about your organization's industry, size and hiring volumes. Additionally, organizations are asked to identify main points of contact.
- Section Two: Readiness Assessment - Questions in this section are designed to be completed collaboratively with stakeholders in your organization to support your decision regarding the organization's readiness to join the HireReach Academy. Additionally, the information collected helps our team to facilitate an efficient intake and onboarding into the program. Please note that your answers in this section will not disqualify you from the program, and are designed to help your organization collaboratively consider included readiness elements.
- Section Three: Jobs for your Evidence-Based Selection Pilot - Questions in this section ask you to consider in which jobs you will include in your Evidence-Based Selection pilot.
- Section Four: Project Team - Questions in this section gather information about your project team (the team that will participate in the Academy and be responsible for implementing your Evidence-Based Selection process).
- Section Five: Engagement - Questions in this section ask organizations to identify their goals related to participating in HireReach.
- Section Six: Memorandum of Understanding - This section outlines the supports provided by HireReach, as well as employer commitments and asks organization's to submit an e-signature from their executive sponsor.

Prior to launching the readiness assessment we recommend downloading the assessment in PDF and reviewing the data required to complete and submit. To access the readiness assessment in PDF click here.

Once the assessment has been launched and the first page submitted, teams can select the 'Save and Continue' option in the top right corner of the application window to save progress and continue later. You will receive an email from 'Alchemer' with a unique link to continue the application.

All information collected in this application will be treated as confidential and will not be shared outside the HireReach Project Team.

If you have any questions please feel free to reach out to our team by emailing info@hirereach.org or marlene@hirereach.org.

Page description:

The following section is designed to support employer teams in assessing, reviewing and considering their readiness for the HireReach Academy. We recommend that this section of the application be completed collaboratively with key stakeholders within your organization.

HireReach supports employers in implementing an Evidence-Based Selection process for selecting talent. At the core, the program supports employers in redesigning their Talent Acquisition process. The questions below explore the current state of the Talent Acquisition function.

14. Describe how your organization views the talent acquisition function and how the Talent Acquisition/Human Resources leader interacts with other senior leaders.

Include:

- To what extent is the Talent Acquisition/Human Resources team embraced as a strategic partner to hiring managers ... versus being viewed as a service group?
- How does the Talent Acquisition/Human Resources team work with hiring managers to fill positions?

15. Describe your current talent acquisition team structure and roles. *

16. Provide an overview of the current Talent Selection process(es) at your organization. Please list the major steps in the process, the roles involved, tools and technology used and the decision makers at each step in the process.

For example:

- Step One - Job Opening & Intake Meeting - Talent Acquisition (TA) and Hiring Manager (HM) meet to discuss the job opening and plan for the recruitment. Intake form is used.
- Step Two - Job Posting - TA posts the job in Applicant Tracking system and other places based on sourcing plan identified in Intake Meeting.
- Step Three - Resume Review - TA reviews resumes and sends candidates that meet minimum qualifications assessments and reference checks. JOFI, Skill Survey and Applicant Tracking Systems are used.
- Step Four - Candidates complete cognitive, personality, and career interest assessments. Online reference checks are sent. JOFI and Skill Survey as used as tools.
- Step Five - TA reviews all data in the compensatory scoring profile. TA schedules top 10 candidates for phone interview.
- Step Six - TA has a phone interview using a Structured Interview Guide. Structured Interview scores are added to compensatory scoring by TA.
- Step Seven - Top candidates are referred to Hiring Manager. Candidate Referral form is used.
- Step Eight - HM interviews top candidates using a Structured Interview Guide. Candidate interviews are scored.
- Step Nine - HM selects a candidate for hire. TA extends offer.
- Step Ten - Post offer checks (background, physical) as required by position.

Section Two: Readiness - Staff and Resources

19. Describe the staff and leadership resources available to participate in the Academy and implement the process change in your organization. *

Section Three: Jobs for your Evidence-Based Selection Pilot

Page description:

As a part of the HireReach Academy, organizations will identify a set of jobs (2-3 job codes) to pilot their Evidence-Based Selection process.

In selecting your organization's 2-3 pilot job codes please consider the following:

- Hiring Volume – Select one or more jobs with a high hiring volume to support testing the process and data collection to support outcome analysis.
- Type of Role – Select a few different ‘types’ of jobs – such as an entry level job family and a professional or manager job family. This allows you to test the process within different areas of the organization.
- Hiring Managers – Choose job families where hiring managers will be open to the transition and are supportive of the new process.

20. Considering the above, for what job families is the organization considering piloting Evidence-Based Selection?

Note: This does not need to be a final decision, if your organization is selected the HireReach team will work with your organization to identify pilot job families. *

Section Four: Organization Project Team

HireReach recommends organizations assemble a project team. We recommend that project team members include: an executive sponsor (Chief Human Resource Officer), a process redesign leader (Talent Acquisition Manager), a Diversity and Inclusion leader, members of the talent acquisition (recruiting) team and a project manager.

Please enter the information for your organization's project team below. Note that this is meant to help organizations form a draft list and the HireReach team will review and update this list as needed prior to the launch of the Academy.

26. What is your organization looking to achieve by participating in HireReach? *

27. How did you hear about HireReach?

Section Six: Memorandum of Understanding

Page description:

Participating in HireReach requires commitments from employers who will in turn receive support from the HireReach team. This MOU highlights key activities and commitments.

HireReach Support

HireReach provides employers with training and tools to support implementing an Evidence-Based Selection process. The HireReach program is delivered through a virtual Academy, virtual employer cohort meetings, and 1:1 consulting sessions with the HireReach team.

HireReach Academy. Training occurs through the HireReach Academy, during which employers complete training and activities to implement learnings in our learning management system and engage in cohort monthly cohort meetings designed to support collaboration with peers and connection with subject matter experts. The HireReach Academy is a five (5) month program.

JOFI Assessments. HireReach participating employers have free access to JOFI Assessments during the Academy and for the six months following the academy. HireReach employers should plan to conduct a bid process that evaluates multiple assessment vendors in the last 3 months and put a contract in place following the six-month period. JOFI

Assessments includes cognitive assessments, personality assessments, career interest assessments, quick prescreen, banding and compensatory scoring.

Consulting Support. Employers will receive four (4) 1:1 consulting sessions with the HireReach team during the Academy to support individual EBS implementations.

Employer Commitments

Employers will be asked to:

- Commit to participate in the Academy with an appropriate project team.
 - Recommended team members include: an executive sponsor (Chief Human Resource Officer), a process redesign leader (Talent Acquisition Manager), a Diversity and Inclusion leader (DEI Officer), and a project manager.
 - All team members should attend the four consulting sessions occurring monthly throughout the course of the academy.
- Designate and provide access to a project lead to partner with, support, and enable the process implementation.
- Empower and provide support to the project team to perform the internal change management and process redesign tasks.
- Plan for each project team member to be available for preparation and attendance at Academy sessions and consulting meetings, averaging 12-16 hours per month for the five (5) months of the Academy.
- Launch an EBS pilot concurrent with the Academy sessions.
- Engage with vendors and fund all costs associated with any tools and systems required to implement, execute, and manage an Evidence-Based Selection process (i.e. assessments, tools, software systems) beyond employer pilots and/or the JOFI free trial.
- Align HireReach pilot activities with appropriate Diversity and Inclusion strategies.
